PRINCIPAL’S COMMENTS

It’s healthy to be outdoors

With the Term 1 holidays about to begin, the Years 5 and 6 students having recently returned from School Camp, Years 3 and 4 having had their beach swimming program, our current involvement of Years 1 to 6 with Monash University’s Experiential Environmental Education and the Premier’s Active April Challenge, I have decided to share the following with parents.

In summary, it relates to the benefits of being outdoors and in touch with the natural world.

The Nature Principle

“...The future will belong to the nature-smart—those individuals, families, businesses, and political leaders who develop a deeper understanding of the transformative power of the natural world and who balance the virtual with the real. The more high-tech we become, the more nature we need.”

—Richard Louv

Richard Louv’s message in Last Child in the Woods: Saving Our Children from Nature-Deficit Disorder motivated an international movement to reconnect children with nature.

Our society, says Louv, has developed such an outsized faith in technology that we have yet to fully realize or even adequately study how human capacities are enhanced through the power of nature. Supported by ground-breaking research, anecdotal evidence, and compelling personal stories, Louv shows us how tapping into the restorative powers of the natural world can boost mental acuity and creativity; promote health and wellness; build smarter and more sustainable businesses, communities, and economies; and ultimately strengthen human bonds. As he says in his introduction, The Nature Principle is "about the power of living in nature—not with it, but in it. We are entering the most creative period in history. The twenty-first century will be the century of human restoration in the natural world."

Richard Louv makes a convincing case that through a nature-balanced existence—driven by sound economic, social, and environmental solutions—the human race can and will thrive. This timely, inspiring, and important work will give readers renewed hope while challenging them to rethink the way we live.

Some data:
Less depression in people who use open spaces
Green spaces in cities reduces stress and mental health problems
Link between time spent in natural environments and the ability to learn

Free school ground play links to reduction in bullying
Positive effect on children with Autism
Reduced symptoms on ADHD
Green schools and higher academic scores - correlation
More open space in a community - less obesity

Here are some of our student comments about Monash University’s Experiential Environmental Education Program:

We played an animal game, looked at all the different places in our school ground where people like to play and talked about the different kinds of animals in our playground. Rhiannon, Year 1

I learned that when it rains down, the rain goes into the gutters and pipes and it is stored as grey-water in tanks. This water is not clean enough to drink, but can be used to water plants and help them to grow. Louie, Year 2

We showed the Monash University students our favourite and our least favourite places to play and talked about what would happen to all the animals and to us if all our playground trees were taken out. Lilleah, Year 3

With the Monash students we talked about where our favourite places are and we played games there. We lay on the playground equipment and listened and then listed what we could hear. We played a Ninja game and Foxes and Wombats.

Mitchell, Year 4

Last week we played a guessing game to work out what animal picture a person was holding. It was like the animal version of Celebrity Heads. Then we walked around the school and showed the Monash students where our favourite places were. Josephine, Year 5

We talked about animals and creatures that we might be scared of. Each animal still is important to the ecosystem even if people don’t like them. Spiders and snakes were the most disliked animals. Tahnee, Year 6

I wish everyone in the school community a safe and happy Term 1 and Easter break.

The first school week of next term will only be for three days as Monday, April 21st is Easter Monday, and it will be Anzac Day on Friday, April 25th.

I will be taking leave for those three school days, April 22nd to 24th. In my absence, Sue McSweeney will be in the role of Acting Principal.

Mark Renouf, Principal

Student Health and Happiness
“When students are happy and healthy, their learning is maximised.”

Why has smoking been banned where children play?

1. To protect everyone, especially children and young people, from the dangers of second-hand smoke. There is no safe level of exposure to second-hand tobacco smoke.

2. Children are influenced by what they see going on around them. When smokers light up in their company, children notice. The more they see smoking in public places, the more they tend to think smoking is ok, rather than harmful.

Schools grounds are Smoke Free Zones!

On 1 July 2009, the Minister for Education exercised the power under the Education and Training Reform Act 2006 to prohibit smoking in all government schools.

Did you know?

There are more than 4000 chemicals in tobacco smoke, of which at least 250 are known to be harmful and more than 50 are known to cause cancer.

There is no safe level of exposure to second-hand tobacco smoke.

Every person should be able to breathe tobacco-smoke-free air. Smoke-free laws protect the health of non-smokers, are popular, do not harm business and encourage smokers to quit.

If you would like help to quit smoking, or know someone who would, call the QUIT line on 137 848

Ventana Fiesta

Last week the Year 5 and 6 students attended the Ventana Fiesta at Frankston Arts Centre.

This is an annual celebration of Latin American, Portuguese and Spanish cultures, people and stories, and aims to provide authentic experiences through dance, music, crafts, film, language, sports and educational workshops. This year’s events were dedicated to Afro Latin American cultural fusion.

The finale was a Music and dancing performance in the front window of Cube 37.

Maddi had her face painted in the African style and her head was adorned with natural flowers, leaves and grasses.

A silver filigree orchid jewellery hair comb.

Brodie playing some music from Colombia with influences from African, Spanish and Indigenous South American people.

Fresh Fruit Progress

Parents' Club is currently raising funds to provide students with Fresh Fruit each week.

Our fete has been approved and will be going ahead. We are still looking for any parents who can help on the day, whether this be with running a school stall, cooking sausages, helping clean up, etc. We would love to hear from you. Forms are available at the office.

We are forming a Fete Committee so if you would like to join to help in the organising of the fete, we would appreciate it. You do not need to be part of the Parents’ Club to help with the fete. We plan on meeting on every second Wednesday straight after morning announcements. We will advertise this once confirmed.

We are also looking for businesses to sponsor our fete. If you own a business or know a business who may help, please feel free to contact us.

Thank You to everyone who donated toward our Easter Raffle. We greatly appreciate it and managed to put together some great prizes. Congratulations to the winners!

Thank You also to the everyone who bought Hot Cross Buns. This was a great success and we hope you enjoy your Easter goodies over the holidays.

Greetings dear friend

I hope this gift finds you well and good,
As these wondrous inventions most definitely should.

As you open these treats, do a good deed for the day.
Scrumdiddlyumptious is for sharing—it’s always been that way.

A creamy pip for them and a delicious piece for you,
Why you ask? That’s what Mr Wonka would do.

Now I leave you with this — a perplexing thought to ponder,
No Oompa Loompa’s name rhymes with Yolonda.

Yours in scrumdiddlyumptiousness,

Willy Wonka
